

How to Find Your True Passion In Life.

“Don’t ask what the world needs. Ask what makes you come alive, and go do it. Because what the world needs is people who have come alive.”

— Howard Thurman

What is Passion?

Simply put, it’s what you love.

It’s not what society says you should love. It’s not what your friends or family say you should care about. It’s what you, at the deepest and most honest part of yourself, love.

How to find your true Passion?

- Inventory your talents.
- Think of what you loved to do as a child.
- Notice when you lose track of time, or what you hate to stop doing.

Why you must find your Passion.

Only fully passionate people are truly alive and experience the full depth and joy of life.

Life is too short, too precious to simply coast. There are no participant ribbons in life. It is never too late to find your passion.

Passionate people change the World.

See your hunt for your passion as a fun, joyful adventure.

Set yourself alive, free, and fully Passionate. The world needs you.
